Any person aggrieved by the order of refusal to grant NOC under sub-section (2) of section 10 of NCMEI Act by the Competent Authority for establishing a MEI, may prefer an appeal against such order to the Commission within thirty days from the date of the order communicated to the applicant.

The Commission may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing it within that period.

An appeal is to be made to the Commission in prescribed format (Annexure-2: http://ncmei.gov.in/adminis/admin/showimg.aspx?ID=43) alongwith the certified copy of the order against which the appeal has been filed.

The Commission, after hearing the parties, pass an order and give such directions as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to its orders or to prevent abuse of its process or to secure the ends of justice.

Incomplete applications will not be entertained.
Procedure for filing an appeal against the order of Authority of the State/UT Governments under Section 12B of NCMEI Act, 2004 and as per National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions (Procedure for Appeal) Rules, 2006

- Without prejudice to the provisions contained in the National Commission for Minorities Act, 1992 (19 of 1992), where an authority established by the Central Government or any State Government, as the case may be, for grant of minority status to any educational institution rejects the application for the grant of such status, the aggrieved person may appeal against such order of the authority to the Commission within thirty days from the date of the order communicated to the applicant:

  - Provided that the Commission may entertain an appeal after the expiry of thirty days, if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing it within that period.

An appeal to the Commission shall be made in prescribed format (Annexure-2: http://ncmei.gov.in/admnis/admin/showimg.aspx?ID=43) alongwith the certified copy of the order against which the appeal has been filed.

- On receipt of the appeal under Section 12B (3) of the NCMEI Act, 2004, the Commission may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, decide on the minority status of the educational institution and proceed to give such direction as it may deem fit and, all such directions shall be binding on the parties.
